ANGEL FIRE RESORT UNVEILS OPENING DATE FOR WORLD-CLASS RV RESORT IN THE ENCHANTED CIRCLE OF NEW MEXICO
New Multi-Million Dollar RV Resort to Open May 2015

ANGEL FIRE, NM - (MARCH 9, 2015) – Some places start with RVs and call it a resort. Angel Fire is starting with the resort and adding the RVs. Today, Angel Fire Resort, located in northern New Mexico, announced they are on track to open their state-of-the-art RV Resort for business by this spring. The 35-acre, modern RV Resort will offer guests access to golf, fine dining, horseback riding, a zipline adventure tour, fishing and a mountain full of outdoor winter activities, such as skiing and snowboarding, Nordic skiing, snowshoeing, tubing and sledding. Additionally the resort is located on the Enchanted Circle and will be in close proximity to world-class fishing in Cimarron Canyon and Eagle Nest State Park, guided hunting, ATV trails and snowmobiling. Guests will also have access to Carson National Forest for biking and hiking.

“Angel Fire Resort has been working with the top experts in RV development and resort hospitality to create a luxury RV Resort. While we will offer traditional RV amenities, our goal is to go way beyond and create a true mountain haven where guests can come to stay for an extended period of time and enjoy our mountain community,” explains Jim Anderson, Manager of the Angel Fire RV Resort. “We will continue to work on the resort until it exceeds the expectations of today's passionate RV travelers.”

The luxury resort, constructed on mountain meadowland at the foot of Carson National Forest, will open May 1, 2015 with 102 RV spaces initially and will grow to offer 325 spaces in later phases. The new RV resort will include a well-appointed private clubhouse, paved roads, fully concreted, over-sized spaces with easy pull-through access and 30/50-amp electrical pedestals, DirecTV access, bathrooms, showers and laundry facilities, convenient Wi-Fi access, outdoor fire pits and Jacuzzis, putting green, pickle ball courts, bocce ball, shuffleboard, a dog park and more.

Each RV space will be large enough to handle the slide-outs of today's biggest recreational vehicles. RV spaces will be available for short and long term rentals.

With frontage access to US Highway 64, the Resort provides guests with convenient proximity to the wide array of outdoor recreation amenities in Angel Fire, including golf, horseback riding, cycling, hiking, fine-dining restaurants, fishing and more.

“Angel Fire Resort has taken huge steps to create a premiere family vacation destination in the Rockies. From building a new Country Club, to extensive renovations to The Lodge at Angel Fire, to adding additional activities on and off the mountain and now the unveiling of the new RV Resort. We hope it will bring visitors from all over the country to enjoy this truly scenic village and mountain community,” said Anderson.

Living Designs Group (Taos, NM) is working with Angel Fire Resort to oversee the design of the new RV resort. This award-winning design company has worked on such notable New Mexico projects as the 4-star El Monte Sagrado luxury resort, UNM Taos and the Angel Fire Resort Country Club.

The resort is now accepting reservations for May 2015 and after. Guests can log onto <http://www.angelfireresort.com/lodging/rv-resort> or call (888) 976-1541 to make their reservations.
