

MEMBERSHIP FAQs

Q: Who is covered with my membership?

A: The primary membership covers a deeded owner's immediate family unit, to include their legal spouse and dependent children (unmarried and age 23 or younger). If there are multiple owners listed on a deed, they are eligible to purchase a secondary (optional) membership for their immediate family unit, or may opt to alternate use of membership benefits among the deed owners annually.

Q: I paid my dues; how do I access my membership benefits?

A: Membership photo ID cards are issued to eligible members (and their qualified dependents) in good standing, that serves as entitlement of membership privileges. Members must be in possession of their ID card to present and receive their complimentary access and discounts to the various amenities, benefits, and member socials. Call or stop by the Membership office at the Country Club, and we would be happy to walk you through the process to get your membership cards.

Q: What is Extended Family Benefits?

A: Extended Family Benefits is an option offered to Platinum members, that allows them to purchase Platinum membership for immediate family members that are not otherwise eligible for membership benefits. Eligible family members for this benefit include adult children (age 24 & older), grandchildren, parents, grandparents, and siblings. Proof of eligibility shall be incumbent upon the Platinum member requesting said benefits.

Q: How may I use the Member RV Park?

A: The Member RV Park is available to members in good standing. Reservations are not taken, availability is first-come, first served at no cost for members, $15/night for guests of members. Once a site number has been chosen, the member must come check in at the Membership office to register and receive a permit, access codes, etc. Sites must be occupied nightly, for a maximum of 13 consecutive nights May 15 – September 15, and a maximum of 21 consecutive nights September 16 – May 14. If the occupant wishes to stay longer, they must spend three nights elsewhere, before coming back to register for another stay.

Q: How can I get a Ski Locker during Ski Season?

A: Only Platinum Members are allowed to use the Ski Lockers and Ski Keys, located at the base of the Ski Mountain. They become available to pick up, 3 days before the mountain opens. A Member may keep the Lockers and Ski Keys for no more than 30 days. After vacating the Locker room for 7 days, Members can check out new lockers and ski keys. *Guests of members are not permitted to use the Platinum Locker Room. *Angel Fire Resort is not responsible for lost, stolen or damaged items.

Q: Where are the Platinum Parking areas at the Ski Mountain?

A: There are 2 small Parking Lots available (on a first come, first served basis) for Platinum Members. One is located on North Angel Fire Rd., between the base of the mountain and the Lodge. The other Parking lot is above El Jefe restaurant near the ski school.
